iHASCO

Returning to Work Safely during COVID-19 Survey Results

We reached out to hundreds of Health & Safety and HR professionals to get their thoughts on returning to the workplace during COVID-19...

72% of people said their staff are being trained in Health & Safety and HR Compliance when they return to work

18% of people said that they had not stopped going to work

88% of people said they need to use public transport to get to work

Only 16% of people said they don't work closely with others as part of their jobs

76% of people said their organisation completed a risk assessment and/or COVID-19 policy before staff returned to work

88% of people thought that they could safely do their job in the current climate

The topics people think are most important upon returning to work...

79% said Infection Prevention & Control

24% said Safeguarding

56% said Risk Assessments

25% said Fire Safety

69% said Mental Health & Wellbeing

Looking for a simple, engaging way of helping your staff to smoothly and safely transition back into the workplace? Why not try our Returning to Work eLearning Bundle for free today? Head over to our website now! - www.ihasco.co.uk

Returning to Work during COVID-19

Building Resilience

Infection Prevention & Control

Risk Assessment

Mental Health & Wellbeing